Dear ,

The China-R conference (CRC) is an influential data science conference in China, which has been held successfully in the last 8 years. The 9th China-R Conference will be held in Renmin University of China, Beijing from May 27 to May 29, 2016. This year, we will hold CRC together with the other two conferences, the International Forum on Statistics (IFS) and the Data and Value Forum (DVF). It will undoubtedly be the largest statistics conference ever in China.

We sincerely invite you to attend the joint conference. Looking forward to seeing you at the conference!

Best wishes,

Xinyu Zhang
